Rosewood Farm Summer Camp

Camp Descriptions

All beginner/novice camps begin at 8:30 am and end at 1:00pm. Before and after camp is available on an as-needed basis. The Novice/Intermediate camps begin at 8:30 and end at 3:00. Campers should bring lunch each day and plenty to drink. Campers should also wear riding clothes and bring shorts to change into after riding, if desired. All camps involve 1-2 riding sessions per day, as well as horsemanship lessons, crafts, and barn chores.

The Beginner rider has only had a minimal amount of exposure to horses either around them or riding them.

The Novice rider is confident in skills necessary for trotting and is ready to begin cantering and jumping. The Novice rider may have some experience with both, but not fully confident.

The Intermediate rider is confident in cantering and jumping, including jumping courses.

Beginner/Novice Camps – Week 1, 2, 3, and 6. Cost per week: $ 300.00. Beginner/Novice camps are designed to get beginner riders off to a good start; as well as helping the novice rider become more confident for advancing in both riding skills and horsemanship.

Show Camp – Week 4 Cost: $ 350.00 Week 5 Cost: $ 350.00

The first week of show camp will focus on the essentials of showing in the hunter arena. We will have a clinic held by a judge to help the campers learn more of what a judge is looking for in the hunter ring as well as assessing the camper's skills.

The second week of show camp will end with a trip to Camden, SC for a weekend of showing. The camp will focus on how to prepare for a weekend away culminating in the weekend trip. NOTE: The cost of the weekend horse show is NOT included in the cost of the camp. Additional fees for trailering and coaching, as well as show fees will be the responsibility of each participant choosing to travel to the weekend horse show.
